HUNTER SHOTS FRIEND IN MISTAKE FOR GAME

Petersburg Youth, Wounded in Head, Is Expected to Recover.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., Sept. 28.—The condition of Britton Pierce, 17, of Blanford, who was accidentally shot Tuesday by J. C. Wall while on a hunting trip near Church Road, was reported to be improved at the Petersburg Hospital tonight.
Pierce and Wall, who are close friends, left this city Tuesday morning for Church Road, carrying their guns. About five miles from Church Road near a small creek, Pierce suggested that he walk up the creek and Wall remain where he was.
Within a few minutes Wall heard a crackling sound near him and thinking that it was a squirrel, especially after he saw a gray object, opened fire with his twelve-gauge gun.
Pierce uttered a scream and fell to the ground. Wall, realizing his terrible mistake, ran to the assistance of his friend. He picked him up and carried him to the creek, where he bathed the wound, which was in the head, where thirteen shot entered.
Wall said yesterday that the only doctor that he could get near the road, of the shooting, refused to render first aid to Pierce. A colored man aided Wall in getting Pierce to the former's home, where a buggy was pressed into service.
Wall returned to Petersburg for his automobile and rushed his friend to the Petersburg Hospital. He is much depressed over the accident. Pierce is expected to recover.

RACER RUNS AWAY AT FREDERICKSBURG FAIR

"Star Craft" Circles Course Seven Times and Spins His

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Sept. 28.— Wednesday, the second day of the Fredericksburg Fair, was truly a "big day." Many thousands of persons passed through the gates when all kinds of "big" and "small" exhibitions were on display.
The attendance on this day was declared by officials of the association to be among the largest in recent years. The size of the crowd was estimated at over 10,000.

"Star Craft," a six-year-old half-brother of Sir Barton, owned by Anthony Lee, of this city, was inassured for the running races at the Fredericksburg Fair, when he sprained an ankle of a front leg, while running away around the track.
Jockey Robert Hordeth, colored, had his charge on the race course for work on the half mile, and after making a lap of the track in remarkable time, "Star Craft" ran away and circled the tracks seven times before he could be stopped, a distance of three and one-half miles. The jockey's foot slipped from the stirrup and he was unable to check the dash of the spirited animal, which sustained a sprained ankle.

SUPREME COURT HAS UNIQUE ISSUE BEFORE IT

Grows Out of Litigation Arising from Augusta Tax and Feathers Case.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, Sept. 28.—The question of whether an execution issued by the court is mandatory or whether it is subject to the voluntary election of a plaintiff in the collection of damages awarded him, was the issue involved in the case of Fitzgerald vs. Campbell, argued this morning in the Court of Appeals.
Growing out of the tarring and feathering of Fitzgerald by James Campbell and others, joint suits were brought by Fitzgerald in the Circuit Court of Augusta County, one against McClure, McClure and others and one against Campbell singly.
Damages of $500 were allowed the plaintiff in his case against Mc-Clure and others. Ten days after the decision of the case, while counsel for the plaintiff were not in Staunton, a general execution was ordered by the court without the knowledge of Fitzgerald's attorneys. Under this execution damages were collected by the sheriff of Augusta County from the defendants in the suit, this automatically inhibiting Fitzgerald from presenting his suit against Campbell. Counsel for Fitzgerald refused to accept the payment and appealed to the Supreme Court.

FATALLY ILL MAN IS ARRESTED AS DRUNK

Augusta County Citizen Dies on Way to Jail, Without Medical Aid.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) STAUNTON, Sept. 28.—While being escorted to jail by two officers, after a local restaurant proprietor requested protection, thinking the man was drunk, Robert C. Benham, 65, of this county, died on the jail porch here late this afternoon.

It is thought that the man was taken suddenly ill while eating and, as his actions were very peculiar, it was supposed he was drunk. Other delegates, however, they soon realized the man's condition was not the result of intoxication, but that the jail was the only place they had to take him, so he was placed in a truck and carried there. He was unconscious when the jail was reached and died before he could be placed inside.
Apoplexy is said to have caused death.

MISSING EX-SOLDIER AND DAUGHTER FOUND

W. A. Spencer and Child Spend 63 Days Cruising Virginia Waters.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Sighted by fishermen five miles off shore in the lower waters of Chesapeake Bay in an open rowboat, in which they had been cruising the waters of the bay and the Potomac River for sixty-three days, William A. Spencer, ex-soldier, and his 10-year-old daughter, Cora Eleanor, were later located by a police launch and brought to that port Saturday after a nation-wide search of weeks following their mysterious disappearance from this city.
Mrs. Spencer, who, waiting with four other children for their return, had grown frantic in her fruitless efforts to locate husband and daughter, has joined Spencer at Norfolk, and they are returning today to their home in Baltimore. Spencer and his daughter dropped out of sight completely when he came to Washington late in July to take her home after a visit here.

His story of their mysterious two-month's cruise in the rowboat along the river and bay, as gathered by police here, revealed that they usually traveled at night and suffered from scant food and inadequate clothing.
Spencer was decorated for distinguished service during the war.

Neither Spencer nor his wife, according to Washington police, have given any reason for his strange actions.

Many Speeders Pay Fines.
DANVILLE, VA., Sept. 28.—The newly paved rural highways are so tempting to automobile drivers that a corps of special officers has been employed by the county authorities to trap speeders. Several Danville golfers fell unsuspectingly into the trap on Monday and Tuesday, some being caught going to and coming from the club and being fined by Magistrate R. S. Pitts in each case.

The officers have stop watches and probes over "police traps" or measured distances.

themselves injustice. So do users of old methods, harsh and crude.

Why The First Aid To Good Health Is Pure Blood

Waste Products in the Blood Cause Many Forms of Rheumatism, Skin Disorders and a Lowered Vitality

Many People Do Not Understand Nature's Warning

When you have that feeling of fatigue; when you lack the energy you need for the day's duties and of nervous prostration, or until, in some serious disease, you contract some chronic ailment, but start at once to get the waste products out of your blood.

Nature has certain peculiar ways to warn us. Fortunately, indeed, is the person who knows her danger signals.
